- Take the list you created with everyone's chief worry and tear the piece of paper up after committing those things to the Lord's care in prayer. Explain to your children that you as a family are going to trust Jesus, who loves you, to look out for your concerns and needs.
- Now, make a list of all that you are thankful for as a family. Thank God for all that you wrote down on that list as a family. Continue that list throughout the week. Post it up on the wall as a reminder.
- Talk about ways you can help others even during this time as a family.
