

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

COMMIT TO COMMUNITY

Jason Greene | Colossians 3:12-16 | October 10, 2021

1. Ice Breaker - Share about a funny memory with a close family member or friend.
2. Did you listen to Anchored Daily or Deeper Dive this week? Share something that inspired, impacted or challenged you.
3. Summarize Sunday's sermon in 2-3 sentences. What was a key takeaway from the sermon? What action step will you (or could you) take?
4. How have you experienced God's love in your small group?
5. How can you, or do you, show love to others in your small group? In your community? In the world?
6. Does the way you love reflect that you are a disciple of Christ Jesus? Explain.
7. When do you celebrate with your group? BONUS: Can you reference an example in the gospels that highlights this?
8. What burdens can you help one another bear? (Here are some ideas to get you started: New baby, death of a family member, divorce, broken relationship, long-term illness, foster care placement or adoption)
9. How are you living with an eternal mindset? What helps you keep your focus?

CHALLENGE

In our life-on-life community, we live out the "one anothers." Do some Biblical research:

Are there any one-anothers that you would add to this week's study?

Write your thoughts down below.

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

COMMIT TO COMMUNITY

Jason Greene | Colossians 3:12-16 | October 10, 2021

1. Ice Breaker - Share about a funny memory with a close family member or friend.
2. Did you listen to Anchored Daily or Deeper Dive this week? Share something that inspired, impacted or challenged you.
3. Summarize Sunday's sermon in 2-3 sentences. What was a key takeaway from the sermon? What action step will you (or could you) take?
4. How have you experienced God's love in your small group?
5. How can you, or do you, show love to others in your small group? In your community? In the world?
6. Does the way you love reflect that you are a disciple of Christ Jesus? Explain.
7. When do you celebrate with your group? BONUS: Can you reference an example in the gospels that highlights this?
8. What burdens can you help one another bear? (Here are some ideas to get you started: New baby, death of a family member, divorce, broken relationship, long-term illness, foster care placement or adoption)
9. How are you living with an eternal mindset? What helps you keep your focus?

CHALLENGE

In our life-on-life community, we live out the "one anothers." Do some Biblical research:

Are there any one-anothers that you would add to this week's study?

Write your thoughts down below.