IMAGO DEI: TRUE IMAGE

Jason Greene | 1 Corinthians 15:47-49 | February 13, 2022

1. Does simply being a Christian and going to church guarantee that we are imaging God accurately in our lives? Why or why not?
2. Discuss this statement: If God agrees with all of my thoughts, feelings, and convictions on everything, there's a good chance I've made him into my image.
3. Can you think of a time when you discovered that one of your opinions/convictions/personal values didn't align with God's character and values? Share your experience with the group.
4. Recall one or two passages in the New Testament that refer to Jesus as the image of God. Read these together and reflect on their meaning and significance.
5. If Jesus is the true image of God, he's the touchstone for what it means to reflect the image in our lives. Read Matthew 5:1-12 aloud together. What do we learn about the image? Where do we align? Where do we need to align?
6. Does Jesus' crucifixion teach us anything about the image of God? Reflect together with your group.
7. God is in the business of remaking us in the image. Share an example from your own life of how God has done this in you.
8. Where would you like to see God do some repair work in your heart? Share with the group and pray for each other.
