

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

THE IN BETWEEN

Matthew Haslar | Acts 1:12-26 | April 3, 2022

Discussion

1. Did you feel like God was asking you to do something in response to what you learned from the sermon?
2. Have you learned a way to remember all of the disciples' names? If so, share it with the group.
3. Read Acts 1:12-26. What do you think helped this large, diverse group of believers face so many challenges together?
4. Why do you think Jesus chose Judas to be his disciple even though he knew he would be betrayed by him? (see John 6:64).
5. How does Jesus' love displayed to Judas in spite of this knowledge challenge you in your understanding of how we are to treat our enemies?
6. Both Peter and Judas Iscariot betrayed Jesus on the night he was arrested. Both men experienced great depths of grief because of their betrayals, however one ended up ending his own life, the other went on to preach and lead the church. How have you wrestled with the weight of your sin?

Prayer

Split up into groups and have different groups pray for a specific topic listed: the Spring Dance Party at Bethel for people with special needs, leadership at Bethel, the GriefShare groups at Bethel, churches in the Tri-Cities, and global missionaries. Application: Write down 1-2 names of people in your life who do not know the Lord. Pray for them and then make it a point to text or call them this week. If they live in town, ask them to come with you to church or one of the Easter events being held at Bethel.

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

THE IN BETWEEN

Matthew Haslar | Acts 1:12-26 | April 3, 2022

Discussion

1. Did you feel like God was asking you to do something in response to what you learned from the sermon?
2. Have you learned a way to remember all of the disciples' names? If so, share it with the group.
3. Read Acts 1:12-26. What do you think helped this large, diverse group of believers face so many challenges together?
4. Why do you think Jesus chose Judas to be his disciple even though he knew he would be betrayed by him? (see John 6:64).
5. How does Jesus' love displayed to Judas in spite of this knowledge challenge you in your understanding of how we are to treat our enemies?
6. Both Peter and Judas Iscariot betrayed Jesus on the night he was arrested. Both men experienced great depths of grief because of their betrayals, however one ended up ending his own life, the other went on to preach and lead the church. How have you wrestled with the weight of your sin?

Prayer

Split up into groups and have different groups pray for a specific topic listed: the Spring Dance Party at Bethel for people with special needs, leadership at Bethel, the GriefShare groups at Bethel, churches in the Tri-Cities, and global missionaries. Application: Write down 1-2 names of people in your life who do not know the Lord. Pray for them and then make it a point to text or call them this week. If they live in town, ask them to come with you to church or one of the Easter events being held at Bethel.