

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

Small Group Questions on Acts 10:1-8

1. In verses 1-2, what do you learn about Cornelius? What is significant about being a centurion in the Italian Regiment? What does it mean to be devout? God-fearing?
2. As a non-Jewish commander in an occupying army, what was unusual about him?
3. Describe Cornelius' vision and response. Why do you think he called the angel "Lord"?
4. God doesn't often use angels to speak to people today like He did in this story. How does God speak to us today?
5. In verse 4 the angel says both Cornelius' prayers and acts of charity (alms) were seen by God. What does this say about the power of prayer? What does this say about the value of giving and being generous?
6. In 9:36 we saw Tabitha was praised for acts of charity (giving alms). In this text we see Cornelius being praised for the same thing. What does this say about how God sees giving?
7. In the bigger picture of history, what do you think the Lord is doing here? Why was this particular story recorded for us?
8. How does Cornelius' life inspire you? How about his immediate obedience to a very unusual command?
9. Is there something the Lord is asking of you right now that requires immediate obedience? Share with your group.

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

Small Group Questions on Acts 10:1-8

1. In verses 1-2, what do you learn about Cornelius? What is significant about being a centurion in the Italian Regiment? What does it mean to be devout? God-fearing?
2. As a non-Jewish commander in an occupying army, what was unusual about him?
3. Describe Cornelius' vision and response. Why do you think he called the angel "Lord"?
4. God doesn't often use angels to speak to people today like He did in this story. How does God speak to us today?
5. In verse 4 the angel says both Cornelius' prayers and acts of charity (alms) were seen by God. What does this say about the power of prayer? What does this say about the value of giving and being generous?
6. In 9:36 we saw Tabitha was praised for acts of charity (giving alms). In this text we see Cornelius being praised for the same thing. What does this say about how God sees giving?
7. In the bigger picture of history, what do you think the Lord is doing here? Why was this particular story recorded for us?
8. How does Cornelius' life inspire you? How about his immediate obedience to a very unusual command?
9. Is there something the Lord is asking of you right now that requires immediate obedience? Share with your group.