

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

Small Group Questions on John 3:16-18

1. Do you know someone who you would describe as generous? What was it about that person that made them generous?
2. Do you think others would describe you as generous? Why or why not?
3. When we think of generosity, we often think of giving money. What are other ways to be generous?
4. In this passage we see that generosity really starts with God. How does this passage speak to God's generosity?
5. Take some time and name ten different ways God has been generous towards you.
6. What does it mean to be condemned in this passage? Why does John say the person who does not believe is "already condemned"?
7. What is the Gospel? Try summarizing it in a few sentences. How do your sentences compare with these verses that are often used as a Gospel summary?
8. Ultimately the Gospel is not something that we are meant to keep to ourselves, but that we are to share with others. Who is God calling you to share the Gospel with?

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

Small Group Questions on John 3:16-18

1. Do you know someone who you would describe as generous? What was it about that person that made them generous?
2. Do you think others would describe you as generous? Why or why not?
3. When we think of generosity, we often think of giving money. What are other ways to be generous?
4. In this passage we see that generosity really starts with God. How does this passage speak to God's generosity?
5. Take some time and name ten different ways God has been generous towards you.
6. What does it mean to be condemned in this passage? Why does John say the person who does not believe is "already condemned"?
7. What is the Gospel? Try summarizing it in a few sentences. How do your sentences compare with these verses that are often used as a Gospel summary?
8. Ultimately the Gospel is not something that we are meant to keep to ourselves, but that we are to share with others. Who is God calling you to share the Gospel with?